This publication is also an exhibition. "Inside Day" presents a selection of emblematic works of the most recent guidance of the policy of acquisition of Frac Île-de-France. Indeed, since 2001, the artist has chosen to question the place of the object in contemporary art and its symbolic functions. Present or represented objects in space, more than half of the acquisitions made between 2001 and 2004 of this new direction.

This book is accompanied by a CD with a sound work by Rémy Bosquère.
