

Garden are for people! (& art for us?)

Stéphane Calais

Lili Reynaud-Dewar, Bernard Goy

With this new project under a bit provocative, Stéphane Calais opens once again the doors of his imagination hybrid poetic and everyday life. Garden are for people! (G art for us?) Avoids the pretense of a stamped art, full of gravity and learning theory. Child of rock and comics, the artist builds a colorful and festive universe that mocks the established boundaries between academic and popular culture, art and beauty of everyday life.
