Résidence 1 + 2 is a photographic program anchored in Toulouse and with a European vocation during which three photographers confront their authors' looks. Each year three photographers (a renowned photographer and two young photographers), three cities (Toulouse, Barcelona, Brussels), three supports (exhibition, books, film).

For this second edition, we chose Israel Ariño (Spain), Leslie Moquin (France) and Christian Sanna (Italy / Madagascar). Born out of different generations and horizons, their photographic expressions question the themes of water, wind and air ... in a subjective and assumed vision of the author. These three glances, associated for the first time, resonated for two months arousing protean and transverse productions.

We wish to show internationally all the richness and diversity of these revisited heritages. We showcase our transversal character with bridges to design, auteur cinema, scientific research, contemporary music ... all the disciplines present in a rich and diverse program at the Paul-Dupuy Museum in Toulouse ( 13 October-19 November).

Philippe Guionie, directeur de la Résidence 1+2.
