

Le chemin de cécité
René Tanguy

Gaston-Paul Effa

"Forty years ago, we left the frozen fog of Longwy. It was a family habit of changing horizon, follow my father work in construction, city workers lost in hole. This man had the advantage of 'exoticism: Moanda. Somewhere in Africa near the equator. New mines manganese and uranium, to build a cable. Two years of bush, heat and beauty. I now come back alone . I do not know what attracts me in this obsession to go back in time: to travel the illusion of my own history, or face the longing for a dream panting? "
