L'autre versant du monde
Jacques Borgetto

The road, so our path can be recorded words. But we know, still faces fixed fraction of a second, landscapes shaped like shadows tough, pure lines that recreate the sensation. Where three small figures of children Mennonites, an almost ghostly white dog, a festival village with its dancers body arched like a Botero painting, or just the empty space and a parking twilight, fall in our eyes. The photographic journey of Jacques Borgetto in Chile or Argentina – the Atacama salt in Geyser Tatio, or Pampas Santa Rosa Peninsula Valdes – are hardly more places. Exhibition as part of the sixth edition of Walks Photographic Vendome (41) June 18 to September 19, 2010. L'autre versant du monde is the first book of Jacques Borgetto.
