

Mi pueblo
Jorge Rivas Rivas

Luis Alberto Crespo

Income several times since 1990 to his native village of Caceres Altamina (Venezuela) Jorge Rivas Rivas takes us in the footsteps of its past. Playing sensations and emotions he redraws the contours of an uncertain landscape for scattered memories.

His work in both photographic and poetic we delve into the elusive existence of life, a life taken by surprise by his sudden disappearance, which we keep the shade, some pictures shriveled and silent whispers.

Jorge Rivas Rivas propose we mediate on the land of his origins involving people, things and places that have lived since his childhood, in a tangle of photos and poems.
